Important information for parents/guardians

The Clubszone team have discussed how to improve the services and clubs that are offered here at Burbage Junior School for the 2017/2018 school year.

Listening to feedback, one of the services we have received from parents is a morning drop off service at the school with a flexible booking option.

The following Q & A will hopefully answer some common questions that are asked.

Where will the club be based?

- A. The club will be based in the main hall of the school*
- B. Access will be through the main reception*
- C. You will be required to sign your children in on arrival*

How to Pay?

- A. Payment will be needed on the day of attendance*
- B. Balance can be paid at the end of each week if using the club for multiple days*

Once the club has finished?

- A. The Clubszone team will send the children off to the classrooms at 8:50am.*

What is the charge?

A. You will be charged the price for the time signing in. This has been made clear opposite to avoid any confusion. Paperwork will be kept showing records of timings and signing in.
