

CLS Reading Cafe Menu

Light Bites – Shorter more accessible reads

El Deafo by Cece Bell

Blamehounds or Cheesemares by Ross Collins

The Phoenix Comics by David Fickling
Books: Evil Emperor Penguin, Bunny vs Monkey & Star Cat in particular

All Day Breakfast – Good staples often part of a series

Demolition Dad or Superhero Street by Phil Earle

Once (series) by Morris Gleitzman

Dear Scarlet by Fleur Hitchcock

Storm Runners by Barbara Mitchelhill

The Fincredible Diary of Fin Spencer (series) by Ciaran Murtagh

Wolf Brother (series) by Michelle Paver

Nathalia Buttface (Series) by Nigel Smith

Specials – More challenging reads for the able reader

Captain by Sam Angus

Flora and Ulysses by Kate DiCamillo

The Dreamsnatcher by Abbi Elphinstone

Coraline or The Graveyard Book by Neil Gaiman

White Dolphin or Scarlet Ibis by Gill Lewis

Wild Boy by Rob Lloyd Jones

How to look for a lost dog by Ann M. Martin

Earth fall by Mark Walden

Sweet treats – Indulgent and pure fun

The Bolds by Julian Clary

Magic Ink by Steve Cole

Emily Sparks series by Ruth Fitzgerald

My Brother is a Superhero by David Solomons

Stay Refreshed.....

Try to keep up to date with books your child might like. Below are some suggestions of places that you may visit online to see what's new and interesting.

Love Reading For Kids:

www.lovereadings4kids.co.uk

A fantastic website offering email newsletters, the opportunity to enter competitions and read extracts from books. Reviews by professionals and children are available with guidelines as to approximate age suitability and more.

Reading Zone:

www.readingzone.com

More recommendations which are tailored to your needs depending on if you are the child, parent or teacher. Great reviews, extracts, interviews and competitions.

Booktrust:

www.booktrust.org.uk/Home

Booktrust is an independent national charity that encourages people of all ages and cultures to discover and enjoy reading. They provide free resources and recommendations for teachers, librarians and parents about books for young people of all ages.

The Guardian Books:

www.theguardian.com/books

A great resource for reviews and author interviews, with an opportunity for children to input into the website themselves.

World Book Day:

www.worldbookday.com

Designated by UNESCO as a worldwide celebration of books and reading, and marked in over 30 countries last year. Next year it is 2nd March 2017.